

SENATE BILL 232: Repeal Death Investigation Confidentiality.

2019-2020 General Assembly

Committee:	House Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House	Date:	July 6, 2020
Introduced by:	Sens. D. Davis, Brown, B. Jackson	Prepared by:	Kristen L. Harris
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition S232-CSTQ-48		Committee Co-Counsel

OVERVIEW: The PCS for Senate Bill 232 would repeal Section 2.5 of Senate Bill 168, 2019 Regular Session, if Senate Bill 168 becomes law.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would repeal Section 2.5 of Senate Bill 168, 2019 Regular Session, if it becomes law. Section 2.5 of Senate Bill 168 would add a new statute pertaining to the confidentiality of death investigation information and records to provide that all information and records provided by a public entity to the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner concerning a death investigation will retain the same degree of confidentiality it had while in the possession of the public entity and will not become a public record unless the information was a public record while in possession of public entity.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.
